

LIMELIGHT

ADVERTISE YOUR SEASON LAUNCH WITH AUSTRALIA'S CLASSICAL MUSIC AND ARTS MAGAZINE

Advertise your 2020 season launch with Limelight and reach a national database of arts lovers across our print and digital platforms.

Limelight will publish its annual Season Preview in the November 2019 issue. This special 24-page feature will include Limelight's pick of season highlights from orchestras, chamber ensembles, opera and vocal companies, theatres, art galleries and festivals from around the country.

For the first time, in addition to being published in the magazine, from January 1, 2020 the Season Preview feature will be available as a free PDF from limelightmagazine.com.au and will be distributed to Limelight's growing email database in early 2020.

All companies who book a season launch campaign with Limelight Friday by August 30 will be guaranteed inclusion in the Season Preview feature and a direct link to their subscriptions will be included within the PDF version.
